

Your Boy

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for children. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a strong tonic, entirely free from alcohol.

No stimulation. No alcohol habit. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young.

GILLETT WOULD PREVENT FIGHT IN CALIFORNIA

the good days of pugilism in California are over, and that, even though the Jeffries-Johnson fight be carried through, the next session of the Legislature will be forced to go on record as prohibiting bouts of more than a few rounds.

In his letter to Attorney-General Webb, Governor Gillett, after stating that prize-fighting has greatly increased and been tolerated in California, "until to-day our State is a Mecca for prize-fighters, much to our discredit," says: "Our people have the right to demand that prize-fighting shall cease in this State, and it will if our laws are enforced, especially if our courts follow the decisions of the Supreme Courts of our sister States in defining a prize-fight. To show that the so-called 'sparring exhibitions' held in this State under the auspices of incorporated athletic clubs have not been sparring exhibitions, but prize-fights, I need but refer you to the files of our daily newspapers."

Points to Recall.—The Governor's call to attention to two or three recent ones, mentioning the Moran-McCarthy, the Nelson-Wolcott and the Conley and Attell fights, and then adds:

"If these contests were not prize-fights, then the historic battle between Heenan and Sayers was not one. I have no doubt that the coming contest between Jeffries and Johnson will be a repetition of the brutality mentioned in the foregoing fights, only on a larger scale.

"If sparring exhibitions, permitted by our laws, make fights where men are killed, beaten into insensibility and their faces cut into ribbons, lawful acts, then it is time that the Legislature should interfere and make such exhibitions a felony. Such contests are prize fights, not permitted by the law, and should be punished as such. Those who are engaged in them are prize fighters and make their living by fighting each other for prizes or rewards.

"The whole business is demoralizing to the youth of our State, corrupts public morals, is offensive to the sense of a great majority of our citizens, and should be abated as a public nuisance and the offenders punished. If the court, upon your petition, refuses to grant the relief prayed for therein, and permits the parties interested to proceed as advertised by them, then I desire you, on behalf of the people of the State, to gather all evidence possible, and if the fight is carried out as advertised, and the parties fight for a purse or for a reward, and inflict upon each other bodily injury, then you are to cause the arrest of the principals and those interested with them in promoting the fight, and try them on a felony charge for violating section 412 of the Penal Code."

The Reason for It.—Washington, D. C., June 15.—The move of the State authorities of California to stop the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight is believed in Washington to have had its origin in a telegram which Representative Bennett, Republican, of New York, sent to William R. Wheeler, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, on May 21. The telegram was to the effect that the moral sentiment of the country was so opposed to the fight that unless it was prevented there was grave danger that Congress would take unfavorable action on the resolution now before it naming San Francisco as the place for holding the international celebration of the opening of the Panama Canal. Mr. Bennett is a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House, which has the exposition resolution under consideration.

He recently received a telegram from San Francisco asking his support of the resolution for the San Francisco fair. He replied as above stated. When informed to-day that Governor Gillett had moved to call off the fight, Mr. Bennett was much gratified. He said: "Prize fighting is prohibited by law in my State, and in most all States. The sentiment of the country is, I believe, strongly opposed to such exhibitions."

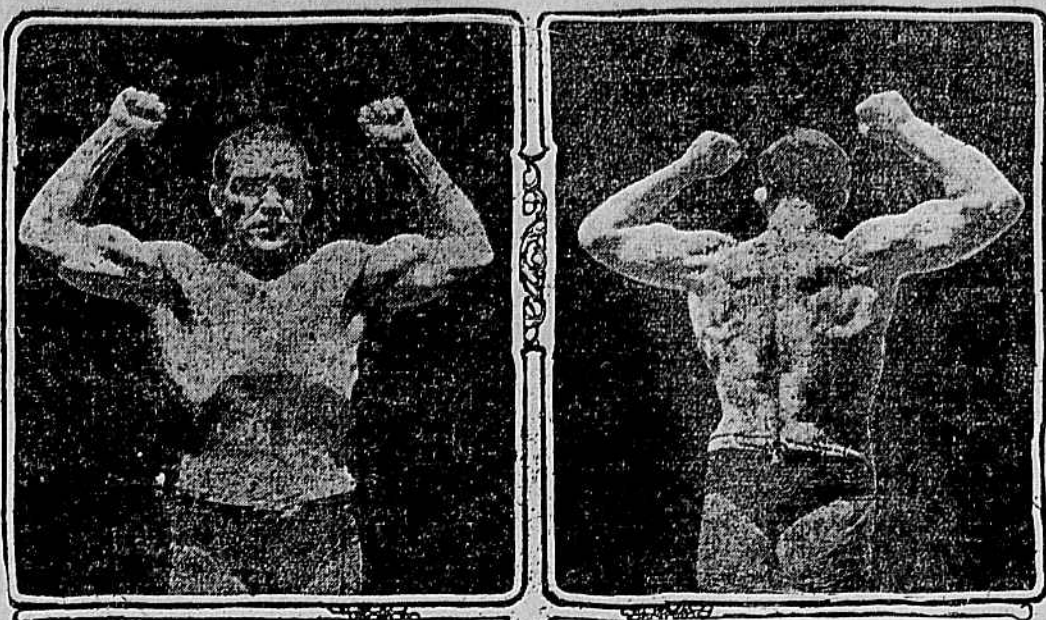

In response to Mr. Bennett's telegram, he received one from Mr. Wheeler, which said:

"Please urge on your committee that the public-spirited citizens promoting the San Francisco exposition and people generally interested therein are not favorable to the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Undoubtedly the preponderating majority of our people are opposed to the fight. It would be decidedly unjust to consider the latter proposition in connection with the former."

The Foreign Affairs Committee will consider to-morrow the resolutions of San Francisco and New Orleans, asking for recognition for their proposed expositions. In view of the action of the California authorities on the proposed prize fight, it is understood Mr. Bennett will favor San Francisco as against New Orleans for the Panama Canal celebration.

Broadway Started.—New York, June 15.—Broadway was startled by the news from San Francisco, but the assumption that the fight probably would be held else-

Latest Pictures From Training Camp Showing Jeffries's Splendid Muscular Development

Since settling down to routine work Jeffries has surprised his adherents by the wonderful development of his chest, shoulders and back. The big fellow has trained until now it is hardly imaginable that he was once the possessor of an outstanding stomach.

Here is Jeff's excellent back and shoulder development. The undefeated champion gets his great hitting powers from his massive shoulders. The muscles on his arms and back are as firm as adamant and stand out like whiplashes.

where if the California ban is not raised eased the first fears of the sporting element. So far as could be learned none of the special trains from New York to San Francisco has been cancelled, and the assumption is that the routes merely will be transferred from California to Utah or Mexico.

Tom Sharkey, who had arranged to conduct an expedition to California, voiced the general view of fight-fighters here.

"Governor Gillett's action will not prevent the fight, being held," said Sharkey. "If the men can't meet there the fight will be shifted to Carson City or some other point."

"Wherever the battle takes place, I will run a special train to the scene," he said. "Therefore, when the 'fake flag' was raised, a good many who had intended to go, dropped out."

William Rockwell, "Young Corbett," has this to say: "I knew this was going to happen. I looked for it sooner. There were too many fingers in the pie and too much wrangling."

Jeffries is a 10-to-8 favorite over Johnson, according to a bet made to-day on the New York Stock Exchange. Although several small wagers have been made on the exchange upon the outcome of the fight, this bet, $500 to $100, is the largest yet made among exchange members.

"Any Place" Will Do.—San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—"I don't care where the fight takes place," declared Jack Johnson to-night. "Of course, I would rather have it come off in San Francisco, as I am training here, but if we cannot fight here I am willing to go to any place Rickard and Gleason agree upon."

Like Jeffries, Johnson said he could not understand why Governor Gillett had decided to step in and prevent the fight at this late date.

Mexico Proposed.—El Paso, Texas, June 15.—A telegram was sent to Tex. Rickard and Jack Gleason by prominent business men here, proposing that the big fight be held in the bull ring at Juarez, Mexico. The arena will seat 30,000 people.

FELT TOO GOOD TO WORK.

Jeffries Spends Day Watching Others Work.

Ben Lomond, Cal., June 15.—Jeffries watched others work to-day, instead of being the star performer himself, being a spectator at a special wrestling match between Farmer Burns and John Froelicher. Froelicher, a German from a nearby camp, visited the quarters for the express purpose of challenging Burns for all wrestling honors. The visitor proved no match for Burns, the "Farmer" scoring the first fall in two minutes and a half, and the second in fifteen seconds. Jeffries said in the morning that he felt too good to work.

LYNCHBURG TEAM GETS NEW PLAYERS

Recent Acquisitions by Manager Smith Will Strengthen Shoemakers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Lynchburg, Va., June 15.—Arthur Benton, a Baltimore player, has reported to Manager Smith, and he is to get a trial in the infield with the Shoemakers. No statement has been made as to what Manager Smith's intentions are regarding the infield, but it is expected that the new man will get trials at different times. He has not stated where the men will go or whether Sharp or Wright are to be replaced.

Coggins is also an infidel, and Manager Smith hopes to find in them a pair of men plenty fast enough for the Virginia circuit.

Transportation has been sent to an outfielder named Joseph Sheridan, who has been playing a fine game in the outfield for some fast semi-professional or independent teams. These men are brought here in the hope of being strong enough to make the circuit, for the management does not want to be bringing men here who have no chance of making good. This is one reason why there has been apparently some delay in locating men.

President McLaughlin and Manager Smith have their lines out for good material, and while they are not talking, it is known that they are working overtime to get the fans of the city a strong, hard fighting aggregation.

COUNTRY CLUB OPENS SATURDAY

Brilliant Events Planned for Three-Day House Warming.

The Country Club of Virginia will throw open its doors on Saturday for three days of entertainment, after which it will begin operations as the largest country club in the South, and one of the handsomest in America. More than 1,000 members are already enrolled.

The final preliminary meeting of the board of governors was held last night in the club house, with every member present. Plans for the opening were perfected and the program for the opening days approved. The program will include a tennis tournament, a golf tournament, and a reception in the club house.

Talk around the hotels inclines to the belief that George Neilsen, of Newport News, will be Republican nominee for Congress from the First District. Reports from Washington are to the effect that Representative Jones has not lost many nights' sleep over the situation as to whether Mr. Wise or some other G. O. P. representative enters the lists against him.

In fact, one hears so little of Republican candidacy in congressional circles that it would appear that the average voter in eight of the Virginia districts will never hear who is running for the Republican platform. While it is presumed that in compliance with the desire of the national administration, nominations will be made everywhere for the sake of party organization, for the most part it will be difficult, apparently, to get any give the race.

Got One Position.—In the Tenth District one citizen is mentioned in the papers as having his name on the ticket near that of Representative Flood. It was of this individual, naturally, that the following anecdote was told. It was made every where for the sake of party organization, for the most part it will be difficult, apparently, to get any give the race.

These conditions do not, of course, apply to the Fifth and Ninth districts. There are many people of the first named district who do not believe that Senator Parsons will refuse to accept the Republican nomination if it is tendered him. Some time since Mr. Parsons made the positive announcement that he would not again be an aspirant, and that he was done with politics. But it is said in some quarters that he will be called upon in such a way to make the race that he will accept. The Democrats of the Fifth feel, however, a confident of re-electing Judge Saunders.

Judge Martin Williams, the members of the House of Delegates from Giles and Blaine counties, came to Richmond yesterday to attend a Federal Association. Williams has been summoned as a witness in the prosecution of the officials of the Southeastern Underwriters' Association. Judge Williams was the patron of the bill, offered in the Legislature of 1908 and 1909, practically reenacting the old Wharton law and aimed directly at the association. He was also captured with John R. Row, of Accomac, in a similar measure during the last session. State will go to Washington to-day on business.

Among the well known Virginians in the city yesterday were State Senator Sands Gayle, of Buckingham county, Frank P. Hutton, of Abingdon.

the club house on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

The opening days are expected to be the most brilliant featured in the summer. The directors have invited a number of the most prominent women of Richmond to be in the receiving line.

In the sporting side of the opening will be a tennis and a golf tournament, which will draw the best players in the city, and a great number of out-of-town players who will be in the city for the occasion. The players in the Old Dominion Tennis Tournament, who have been sadly set by the weather during the week, will be present to make a try for the handsome prizes offered by the club, and a great number of local players have entered for the tennis events.

Although there will be no outsiders to contend for the prizes in the golf tournament to be held on the opening days, the play is expected to be more than interesting. Every local player of note has entered for the event, and it is expected that the play will be rather classy even when it is considered that the players will be going over an absolutely new course.

Although the course has not been played over, yet several experts have looked it over and have pronounced it good. The lay of the country about the club lends itself most materially to golf, and the course as laid out appears to be one of the best of its kind.

There will also be a try-out for the hunting membership during the three days of the opening, in which the horses now stabled in the club grounds will be tried out over the jumps. At least every horse of note in the city has been stabled at the club, the owners being members, and on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday they will be given a try-out over the hurdles.

Johnson went over his usual twelve miles to-day at a fast pace. Hereafter he will cover the distance at a brisk walk, which will end in a 200-yard sprint on the beach. The program as now arranged for this week calls for a great deal of strenuous gymnastic work, but little boxing. It is likely the champion will not put on the gloves more than once before Sunday, when he will box before the large crowd that visits his training quarters on that day.

Arrangements were made to-day for a special car which will carry Johnson East on July 6. The proper decoration of the car caused some discussion in the camp, and the matter was decided by a vote which gave the victory to the adherents of a color scheme which consists chiefly of green bunting. Tom Flanagan, Johnson's present manager and trainer, cast the deciding vote in favor of green.
